From the National Intelligencer.

The National Convention.

The call for a National Union Convention meets the approbation of every national Union man in Congress. It is recognized by each and all of them as precisely what is needed in the present condition of affairs. They perceive in it the ready and happy means of aggregating and consolidating the truly patriotic and Union-loving masses throughout the whole country, which, while they in fact constitute a vast majority of the people, are now powerless only by reason of being divided among the several existing political organizations and subjected to the despotic control of party leaders, who were elevated to their positions by circumstances belonging exclusively to the past, and either cannot or will not recognize the changes that have occurred and the necessity for conforming to the requirements of the present. To the Conservative Republicans, who regard the Republican party as organized and hitherto maintained, solely to uphold and restore the Union and promote its greatness and prosperity, the proposed Convention offers a long-coveted opportunity to emancipate themselves from the degrading despotism that, for some time past, has been dragging them helplessly towards an intense and dangerous sectionalism. They are painfully aware that this purely sectional bias, given to the Republican organization by its leaders in Congress, however useful and appropriate during the war, is totally unsuited to the requirements of a time of peace, and must inevitably, not only unfit it ever to become a great national party, but invoke for it unavoidable and irretrievable defeat. They see in the programme for this National Union Convention only an announciation of the principles to which they, in common with the whole Union party, during the war, have, at various times and in many ways, distinctly committed themselves. They perceive in this movement an opportunity to rescue these cherished principles from the grave of sectionalism, in which intemperate leaders of their party are seeking to bury them. They gladly avail themselves of this occasion to uphold these dogmas, with which they have won the victories of the Union, and to follow them into a great and truly national organization, which shall know "No North, no South, no East, no West," but be as broad as the whole national domain, and crown their triumphs by the complete restoration of the national Union.

The Conservative men of the "other side" of Congress, including old Whigs, who would not be denationalized, Union Border-State men, and Union Democrats, hail with delight this call for a National Convention. They recognize, in the proposed qualifications for a participation therein, a reiteration of the constitutional policy for which they have been earnestly and honestly contending against the murderous assaults of the reckless sectionalists and revolutionists in Congress. They willingly embrace the opportunity thus afforded to transfer this contest from Congress to the people, and to give vitality to this constitutional policy by rallying to its support, by means of this Convention, the overwhelming host of the Union-loving men, North and South, whose united strength will overcome all opposition from whatever quarter, and secure a glorious and enduring triumph in the complete restoration of the Union, morally, politically, and practically.

The conservative men of all the various political organizations who are anxious to realize, in a restored Union, the fruits of our costly blood-bought victories, but who have hitherto been kept apart only by the rigidity of party lines and the maintenance of party discipline, perceive in this Convention the greatly-needed rallying point, around which all the true friends of the Union and constitutional liberty, without any sacrifice of principle or any faithlessness to party obligations, may congregate, and move on together irresistibly to the accomplishment of a Union victory of peace that will eclipse in grandeur and permanence all the victories of the war.

The announement of this call has, however, greatly perturbed the leaders of the Radical revolutionary party in Congress. They are taken completely by surprise. It is to them a flank movement for which they were unprovided, and which they know not how to resist. They hear in this call the knell of all their hopes.—They read in the programme of the Convention the doom of all the schemes for which they have toiled recklessly and unscrupulously. They are unwilling to be thus suddenly and unceremoniously dragged before the bar of popular judgment. So long as they were allowed to ridicule, as only "the President's policy," the constitutional policy that is made the basis of this Convention, they were confident of their ability to deceive, mislead, and betray the people into leaving them in possession of the power they designed to pervert to the ruin of the Republic. They now shudder at the prospect of this constitutional policy, emblazoned by this Convention upon the banners of an overwhelmingly powerful national party, before whose might the miserable sectional organization they are trying to build up will shrink and be consumed as dried grass in the path of a prairie fire.

We are glad to learn that Mr. James Eagan, of Lexington, South Carolina, whose re-arrest by the military authorities of that State, after he had been discharged by Mr. Justice Nelson, we made the subject of a brief comment some days ago, has been released by order of the President. We trust that his is a final disposition of the matter, not only as to Mr. Eagan, but as to all other persons similarly situated, and that henceforth the decision of the Courts will be respected and obeyed by the military authorities.

A singular suicide occurred at Keokuk, Iowa, recently. Jacob Koch loaded a toy cannon with powder, and used a child's marble for a ball. He placed the muzzle in his mouth, and with a match touched the piece off. His brains were blown all over the room.

IT IS STATED that General Cass's large fortune of four or five millions of dollars had its origin in his fortunate investment in real estate in what is now the heart of the city of Detroit; and the heirs of the deceased statesman may thank the late Mrs. Cass, who died in 1855, for the great wealth they inherit. Repeatedly, when the property was rising in value, years ago, the General was anxious to sell, and was only restrained by the earnest advice and remonstrance of his wife.

Theodore Tilton calls upon Fourth of July orators to say much about "equal rights," and to let Great Britain alone.

Radicalism vs. Nationalism.

There are some things in this world which are morally impossible of accomplishment.—The old adage that "you cannot make a silk purse out of a sow's ear" is a very homely one, but it contains a striking and an impressive moral. It illustrates the uselessness of endeavoring to change the course of nature or the confirmed habits of education and training.

Of all the impossibilities that have been proposed, in these latter days, is one suggested by the Hon. Mr. Raymond, of N. Y., in his recent speech in Congress,—a speech, by the way, which contains some admirable sentiments, eloquently expressed. It is to be regretted that a man who talks so well and so generously should not carry his professions into practice. His suggestion is that the Radical faction shall proceed to nationalize itself, or, to use his own language, shall "plant itself upon national ground; discard all sectional feeling; extend its organization into every State; and make the interests, rights, honor and welfare of all sections its own."

By pursuing such a course, the Radical party, as a party, would cease to exist. It is simply impossible that a faction, whose vitality is based on sectional issues, prejudices and hates, which regards the Constitution of the country as a mere paper-writing to be modified or moulded to suit personal interests and party expedients, which lives only on persecution and thrives alone in the atmosphere of a bigoted fanaticism, can adopt a diametrically different course of action, except by disintegrating and leaving its individual adherents to form new associations and take up new ideas.

How can a party, as such, attempt the work of nationalization, that holds it a cardinal doctrine that eleven States of the Union have no rights under the Constitution, except such as may be accorded at the pleasure of a domineering and arbitrary majority; that has removed the foundation stone of the great national structure,—the dependence of representation upon taxation; and that has subverted the true principle of the Republic, by ignoring the Executive prerogative and attempting a centralization of all the powers of Government in the hands of an irresponsible Congress? There is but the one way of effecting the result which we have suggested, to-wit: to dissolve its distinctive organization, throw its turbulent and revolutionary leaders overboard, and let each man identify himself with that conservative sentiment, of which Andrew Johnson is the representative, and which alone promises reconciliation and harmony to the country, torn and distracted by the passions which these evil spirits have evoked. The first and most important step in the process is to discard and repudiate the Sumners, Stevenses, Phillipses and Brownlows. The devils must be driven out before the man can sit down "clothed and in his right mind." But the days of miracles have passed, and we fear there is no power now on earth that can exorcise the demons of sectional bitterness and party lust from the Radical heart.

One feature of Mr. Raymond's programme presents the climax of absurdity,—we mean when he exhorts the Radicals to extend their organization into all the States. So long as our people have their senses about them, preserve either their reason or the shadow of manliness and self-respect, they can only look with abhorrence and detestation upon the men who are heaping upon them every injury and indignity, and who would grind them to a powder as fine as the impalpable dust. The only affiliations that they can expect at the South are from and with a few men, who will seek in any association some covert from the scorn and contempt with which they are regarded by the people among whom they live, and which they have merited by a course of duplicity and treachery.

The only national party that lives, or that can now be formed, is that which rallies to the support of the enlarged, magnanimous and wise policy of the President. Such a party is daily growing in influence and numbers, and will, we firmly believe, ultimately prevail over the madness and wickedness of Radical fury.

The Right Spirit.

At a meeting of the citizens of Augusta Co., Va., held last week, the following admirable resolution, among others, was reported by the Hon. A. H. H. Stuart:

"That the people of Augusta can never authorize their Senators and delegates in the General Assembly to vote for the article of amendment to the Constitution of the United States propounded, as before stated, by the two Houses of Congress; and that, in their opinion, it is far better for Virginia to maintain her position, as a State, out of the Union, and at the same time discharge the duties of a State in the Union, than to enter the halls of Congress with the brand of self-imposed degradation upon her brow, and the object of the just scorn of mankind: and that, therefore, it is the fixed purpose of the people, without passion or excitement, and with no view to disturb the order or harmony of the country, to decline even to consider any proposed amendments of the Constitution until, to use the words of President Johnson in his recent message to Congress, "after the admission of such loyal Senators and Representatives of the now unrepresented States as have been or may hereafter be chosen in conformity with the Constitution and laws of the United States.

Lieutenant Governor.

The following sensible and good tempered article appears in the Charlotte Times of Saturday last:

"MY DEAR TIMES:—I think a heated partizan campaign for Governor, in view of the present condition of public affairs, would be extremely unfortunate at this time. All the bad passions and feeling engendered by the late war, and which the interests of us all requires, should be lulled and quieted, would be revived and aroused. In concord and harmony, in unity of purpose and action, rest our chiefest good, our safety and our peace.

Governor Worth is in the field. He is a representative man of the old whig school. Allow me, through your columns, to place upon the ticket with Gov. Worth, for Lieutenant-Governor, the Hon. J. G. Shepherd, of Cumberland, a representative man of the old democratic school, than whom no purer patriot, or more perfect model of a christian gentleman, is to be found in the State. And this is a ticket upon which all parties and sections can unite with the most perfect consistency and harmony.—Whigs and democrats, east and west, are alike represented by good and true men. D."

The correspondent speaks truly that a heated contest for Governor, at the present time, would be injurious. He feels the necessity, as we do, of harmony and concert, among the friends of Gov. Worth and President Johnson's policy.—There is, we repeat, but one issue before the people of North Carolina. Shall true conservatism or radicalism prevail in the State? Shall President Johnson's policy be sustained, or shall our people sanction the Radical constitutional amendment of Congress? Shall we support an early reconciliation of the States and a Constitutional Union under the Constitution as it is, or shall we cravenly adopt such Radical amendments of that instrument, proposed by the Congress, as will entirely change the organic character of the Government? This is the only question that we should consider. All others are insignificant and worthless compared to this.

If, therefore, in order to unite the Constitutional Union men of the State upon this great question, it is necessary to regard the old parties, Democratic and Whig, as still existing among us, still alive and demanding pledges and privileges, in order to union we are prepared to give our support to any gentleman who might be selected.

As to Judge Shepherd, we entertain such entire confidence in his ability, purity and conservatism, we could not hesitate a moment in giving him our warmest support, were he chosen as the candidate of the Constitutional Union men for the office of Lieutenant-Governor.

Indeed, we have heard no gentleman named by the friends of Gov. Worth, that we could not support.

As Gov. Worth is a Western man, we presume the West would not hesitate to yield the Lieut. Governor to the East. Hence, Col. Ferebee, Judge Shepherd, P. H. Winston, Wm. Eaton, Jr., Wm. N. H. Smith, Robert Strange, W. A. Wright, or Judge Howard, all of whom we believe have been named for the position, would suit us, in order to secure entire harmony among the Constitutional Union men.

Should, therefore, the new Constitution be adopted, we would suggest, as the best means of making the selection, that the choice be made by the above named gentlemen, either from among themselves, or otherwise, as they may elect.

THE NEW YORK Herald thus photographs the present Congress:

"When we look at the present Congress we behold the republican party as its exists in its moral and political degeneracy. A more corrupt body than this Congress never disgraced any country. It is one immense, concentrated, detestable job from beginning to end. It is composed of men who made dishonest fortunes during the war; of bogus generals, who killed only their own men; of knavish contractors, who purchased their seats in order to continue their robberies in the Treasury; of raving fanatics, who ought to be in Bedlam; of small politicians, whose only ambition is to steal enough to build a house; of foolish philosophers, who love to air their theories, but who have not a single practical idea; and of weak-minded members, who are entirely under the control of the jobbers in the lobby and are paid accordingly."

A Virginia paper says: It is a noticeable fact in the travel over the railroads at this time that there are many more people going North than South.

The President has ordered the Freedmen's Bureau in Tennessee to be discontinued after June 30th.

(Correspondence of the Sentinel.)

ASHVILLE, June 24, 1866.

MESSRS EDITORS:—Leaving the heat and dust of the city of Oaks, the traveller moves rapidly over the well managed and pleasantly conducted railroad to Salisbury.

The Boyden House by Mr. Brown, in Salisbury, is well kept. The rooms are airy, neat and comfortable, and the table bountifully supplied, whilst the servants are attentive and polite.

Passing to the great West, the railroad to Morganton is found with facilities for travel and transportation quite as good as could be reasonably expected, but the charges are so high as to turn away both passengers and freights. The managers are manifestly in error. If they would conform in these respects to the prevailing standard, even on Southern roads, their expiring exchequer might at once revive.

It may be assumed, as the universal experience of railroads, that excessive charges, such as prevail from Salisbury to Morganton, are financially ruinous. Such a policy must be abandoned or the road will cease to be run.

The kindness and hospitality of the people of Morganton are proverbial. Being intelligent and cultivated, they fail on no occasion to render the sojourn of the stranger pleasant and agreeable. From Morganton to Ashville, the travel at present is both slow and expensive; but then the traveler has ample time to contemplate the grandeur and gorgeousness of the scenery. Nature has lavished favors in every possible and conceivable manner. The climate is inimitable. Pure, limpid and cold streams, gushing from a thousand hills, fertilize the valleys, stimulate the growth of vegetation and clothe the forest with a deep rich verdure. The whole country west of the Blue Ridge is destined, if fostered by liberal and wise legislation, to become exceedingly prosperous. A dense population can be sustained.—Wealth will be eliminated from sources yet undeveloped and un-named. The grasses and cereals can be produced almost without limit in the valleys and on the table lands. Herds of stock of all kinds abound and are thrifty, and may be increased to an extent to fully compensate industry and enterprize, and sufficient water power exists to drive all the machinery of this continent.

The mineral resources, in extent and abundance, cannot be easily comprehended. Irish potatoes, cabbage, apples, peaches, pears, cherries, grapes, strawberries, blackberries, and raspberries abound in profuse abundance, and under careful culture, equal any grown in the world.

The completion of the Rail Roads to the Ducktown mines and along the margin of the French Broad to the Tennessee line, will be the era for a new and glorious career for this country. The imagination of the most sanguine falters in contemplating the mighty volume of prosperity for the old North State that will follow the completion of this enterprize.

It is gratifying to mingle with this mountain population. Well informed as to the principles that guided the framers of our Government, there exists only deep sorrow that radicalism, North and South, combined to overthrow our glorious fabric of freedom. Northern radicalism having by the fortunes of war obtained the ascendant, all the worst passions of the human heart are at riot; the South is being ruled at the promptings of hate and revenge. Literally, the South sits upon the monument of her ruin and smiles at her grief.

The people are submissive, peaceful and quiet. Judge Merrimon, this week, is closing the Spring term of his courts for this circuit. He has made an impression, both on the bar and the people, every way favorable. His fine personal appearance, his amiable and dignified manner, his learning, his unswerving sense of justice, his lucid exposition of the law, as held by ancient as well as modern jurisprudence, challenge the admiration and respect of the bar and draw towards him, in confidence and esteem, the entire population. The administration of justice now is no easy task. Society has been for five long years in chaos. Law has been suspended and defied and desolation has been rampant; penetrating every community and all circles. It is really wonderful to witness how rapidly law and order are resumiug their sway. It must be that this people are raised up by Almighty power and endowed by Omniscient wisdom for such an exhibition.

Provisions of every kind are exceedingly scarce and there is really no money, and yet the people in this section divide with one another and keep off in a surprising manner hunger and suffering.

It appears to your correspondent almost an impossibility for the people to respond to tax collectors. There, however, prevails a gratifying rumour that the Federal Government has for the present suspended the collection of taxes on lands.

If this be true, there remains some hope that the people may pay a portion of the State taxes at least, but if both claims are simultaneously enforced, many happy homes will have to be sacrificed. Indeed, this must follow the collection of even the taxes levied by the State.

There is a fair prospect for summer crops.—From observation, as well as from information obtained from the farmers, the belief exists that there will be gathered full half a crop of wheat and fair crops of oats and rye. The corn crop promises well, and although the weather has been unfavorable, the fruit crops will be full half an average. Upon the whole we look with thankful hearts to the Giver of all good, and take courage. Yours Truly,

GASTON.

The civilized world was shocked, some months ago, by a tale of outrage perpetrated on a young lady at a boarding school in England, and the press could scarcely find language strong enough to express its indignation. And we all remember how General Sickles prohibited a South Carolina sheriff from inflicting on a convicted thief the stripes to which he had been sentenced by court, because whipping was repugnant to the spirit of the age. But it seems that in Boston they consider it right, not merely to flog, but to flog young ladies. A case of the sort occurred the other day in Cambridge, and the School Committee justified the flogging, which, it seems, was inflicted in accordance with the regulations of the school. We hope the jury, before whom the case is to be brought, will think otherwise.

EXTRAORDINARY HIGH PRICES FOR THE "WEED."—At the Tobacco Exchange, yesterday, Mr. D. T. Williams, commission merchant of this city, sold four hogsheads of tobacco to Mr. James Thomas, Jr., for his celebrated brands, at prices ranging from $41 to $225 per hundred pounds! This lot of tabacco was raised by Archer A. Farmer, Esq., of Halifax county, Va., and is the highest sale ever made in this or any other market in the State.—Rich. Examiner.

Fourth of July at Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 30, P. M.

A committee of arrangements for the reception on the fourth of July, have provided accommodations for the President and Cabinet, and Gens. Grant, Meade and Hancock, at the La Pierre House.

THE REV. STERLING RUFFIN.—The Rev. Peter Doub is communicating, for the Enterprise, of this city, a very interesting series of articles giving a history of Methodism in this State from its beginnings to the present time.—Speaking of the early Conferences, the author says:

"There were only three or four years (between 1820 and 1825,) that these conferences met in North Carolina to do business, when they all ceased, as if by common consent. The first conference held for the Yadkin district, convened at Leaksville, North Carolina, at which thirty local preachers were present. They transacted a good deal of business, and during their stay, a considerable revival took place, and a number of souls were converted and joined the church. The second was held at Mt. Zion church, in the county of Stokes, North Carolina, in connection with a camp meeting.—Much business was done at this conference.—Among the persons licensed to preach at this session was Sterling Ruffin, the father of Judge Ruffin. And, here let me remark that the day after Mr. Ruffin was licensed, he was appointed by the Presiding Elder to preach at a popular hour. He took for his text: "What is man, that thou art mindful of him? and the son of man that thou visitest him." Psa. viii. 4. He confined himself in his discourse, mainly to the first member of the text. It was truly a masterly discourse, and distanced every other sermon delivered on the occasion. I was acquainted with Brother Ruffin, and knew him to be a man of superior talents, and he became a very useful and popular local preacher in the Methodist Episcopal Church. He lived some years after this, a humble, faithful and happy christian. His last sickness was a scene of great interest to his family; several of the family were members of the Methodist Episcopal Church; especially his wife and one or two daughters. The scene of his dying hour was truly grand, when he was thrillingly excited by the inward impulses of the Divine Spirit filling his soul overflowingly full of glory and of God. His last end was not only peace, but it was triumphantly glorious.—His last utterances were "glory, honor, victory." Such was the overshadowing glory in this dying Christian's chamber, that nearly every member of the family were in raptures of triumphant joy, and, with the dying Husband and Father, were heard to shout the praises of Immanuel, God with them.

This Mt. Zion camp meeting conference was an occasion of much interest to that community and the means of accomplishing much good, in regions beyond its immediate vicinity."

Death of Col. J. W. Cameron.

With pain we announce the death of Col. J. W. Cameron. He died at his residence in Richmond county, on Friday last, from an affection of the liver, in the fifty second year of his age.

Col. C. was a graduate of the University of North Carolina, of the class of 1840, and after leaving that Institution he chose the law as a profession, locating in Wadesboro' and practicing in the courts of Anson and adjoining counties. In January, 1848, he began the publication of the North Carolina Argus, at this point, and continued in charge of it for about two years, when it went into other hands. In 1852, he acted as the Presidential elector on the Scott and Graham ticket for this district, and took a very active part in that campaign. After the complete overthrow of the great Whig party, and when the American or "Know Nothing" sprung up on its ruins, Col. Cameron resumed charge of the Argus and removed it to Fayetteville, where he continued its publication in advocacy of that party's principles, until it in turn "went under." He relinquished all connection with the paper in the early part of 1857, and retired to his home in Richmond, where he continued to reside until the day of his death, taking but very little active part in public matters, although but few men were better fitted to take a leading part than he was. At the session of the Legislature of 1864-'5, he was elected one of the Councillors of State to his Excellency, Ex-Governor Vance, and last fall he was elected by his fellow-citizens of Richmond county to represent them in the House of Commons. Col. Cameron was a caustic, piquant and forcible writer and debater, and but few men cared to come in contact with him, either with the pen, or at the bar or on the forum.—Wadesboro' Argus.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—The 144th. term of the University of North Carolina will begin on Friday, 20th inst.

See Professional Card of Bailey & Martin, Asheville, N. C., and announcement of the opening of Judge Bailey's Law School.

See Card of the "Southern Hotel," (late La Farge,) 669 and 679 Broadway, N. Y. A Kentucky gentleman has assumed the proprietorship.

Messrs. M. Martin and John Wilkes have established an extensive Foundry and Machine Shops in Charlotte. See advertisement.

A Virginia gentleman, of six years experience in teaching, wishes to secure a school in a private family, neighborhood or village. Address Fabius, Cartersville, Cumberland Co., Va.

Messrs. W. H. & R. S. Tucker have associated with them in the Mercantile business Mr. Thadeus McGee, of the late firm of McGee and Williams. Mr. McGee needs no endorsement in this community. The new firm will be able to cater more successfully than ever to the wants of the public.

Pulliam, Jones & Co., offer for sale a handsome house and lot in the Eastern part of the City.

GEN. SICKLES, Commander of the Department of North and South Carolina, was in this City on Saturday. We do not know whether or not he has left the City.

AN ERROR.—A correspondent of the New York Watchman, writing from Hillsboro, in this State, awards Gen. Ruger great credit for having issued "a soothing order, directing the Government offices to be closed in Raleigh on the 10th. of May, in respect to Jackson and the Southern dead." The statement is a mistake. No such order was issued.

MASON L. WIGGINS, Esq., announces himself as a candidate for the Senate in Halifax county. Enough said.

NATIONAL BANK IN WILMINGTON.—The efforts to secure a sufficient amount of stock for a National Bank in Wilmington have been successful. The stockholders held a meeting on Thursday last, and elected the following gentlemen Directors of the institution, viz: Edwin E. Burruss, Dr. A. J. DeRossett, W. H. McRary, S. D. Wallace and J. H. Chadbourn.

Edwin E. Burruss, Esq., was subsequently elected President.

LEG BAIL.—We learn, from the Asheville News, that as Buncombe Court was waning on Saturday week last, his Honor, Judge Merrimon, over-ruled the motion of Andy's counsel (Andy was convicted, during the first part of the week, of arson,) for a new trial, and passed sentence upon the defendant—that he be taken from the jail of Buncombe county on the 27th. of July next, and be hung by the neck till he was dead. The counsel prayed for and obtained an appeal, but Andy had more confidence in his legs. As the Sheriff was carrying him to jail, the prisoner struck him a blow just at that tender point where the head and neck join, which so stunned the Sheriff as to give Andy a chance for his life, and thereupon he dusted.

REV. A. W. MANGUM, of Orange, proposes to publish, at an early day, a sketch of Salisbury, containing a minute account of its history during the late war.

CUMBERLAND.—Mr. John W. Baker, Jr., is announced as a candidate for the House of Commons, for Cumberland county.

MRS. CAROLINE COX, of Lilesville, Anson Co., wishes information of her husband, Peter B. Cox, late of Co. B, 31st. N. C. T. When last heard from, (in August 1864,) he was a prisoner of war at Elmira, N. Y.

BERTIE COUNTY.—Two meetings, we learn, one at Windsor and the other at Coleraine, have been held in this County. At each meeting, Gov. Worth was unanimously recommended for re-election. On both occasions the citizens of the county assembled without regard to party.

Bertie will poll a heavy vote for Gov. Worth at the coming election.

MR. WILKES.—We observe that the Charlotte and Salisbury papers speak very highly of Mr. Wilkes' management of the N. C. Railroad since he took charge as Superintendent. We are not prepared to judge from observation, further than that we know he is a clever gentleman, and we acknowledge our obligations to him, personally.

ESTABLISHMENT OF THE FIRST EPISCOPAL CHURCH IN NORTH CAROLINA.—In 1701 the Assembly passed a law for building a Church and establishing a maintenance for a minister. The presence of a clergyman, probably, stimulated the laity to erect the sacred edifice. Where it was built we cannot say, and doubtless it was an humble structure. Still it was built, and, as we think, in 1702; and this was the first Episcopal edifice ever built in North Carolina. The supposition is that it was built in the town of Edenton.

For the Sentinel.

MESSRS EDITORS.—Allow me to suggest the name of General Samuel F. Patterson, of Caldwell, for Lieut. Governor.

Gen. Patterson would make a first rate Governor, and therefore I like him for Lieutenant Governor.

He is a strong man in the State, and in my judgment the right man now for the proposed office.

A FARMER.

[Gen. Patterson would fill any position well, to which the people might call him. If the choice were to fall on a Western man, no better man could be selected.—EDS. SENTINEL.]

Freedmen's Bureau in Virginia.

Brevet Brigadier-General F. D. Sewell, Inspector General of the Freedmen's Bureau for the State of Virginia, has just completed a tour of inspection of the State. In his report to the bureau, he speaks highly of the conduct of Colonel Brown, formerly assistant commissioner of the bureau for the State. He recommends a consolidation of the sub-districts and a reduction of the agents of the bureau. He states that the issue of rations is steadily decreasing and will be less after the crops come in. The largest issues are made at Richmond, Petersburg, Hampton and Norfolk, where there are great numbers of freedmen. He recommends that they be sent into the back country where the demand for labor is much beyond the supply.

THE TEXAS STATE ELECTION.—Sufficient returns from the election held in Texas, on Monday, are thought to have been received to make certain the success of the following ticket: J. W. Throckmorton, for Governor; W. M. Walton, for Attorney General; W. L. Richards, for Comptroller; M. H. Royston, for Treasurer.

The Judges elected to the Supreme Court are A. H. Willie, G. F. Moore, Richard Coke, Geo. W. Smith and S. P. Donly.

All the above gentlemen ran on what is known as the conservative Union ticket, in opposition to the Radical candidates.

The Philadelphia papers say that there has been for some time past enmity between the residents of Front and Reed streets, in that city, and on Monday last a collision occurred between the two parties in which several persons were seriously injured. Bricks and stones were principally used, but there was also some firing of pistols.

Lieut. General Grant has been elected second vice-president of the Washington National Monument society, vice Lieut. General Scott, deceased, and has accepted the position.

THE TENNESSEE LEGISLATURE.—Another Dead Lock Threatened.—Information of a reliable character has been received in Washington to the effect that the Tennessee Legislature is again to be brought to a dead-lock in the approaching extra session. It is understood that the members who are opposed to the constitutional amendments will refuse to appear, which will leave the General Assembly at least two members short of a quorum. In this way the Democrats hope to defeat the ratification of the amendments.—New York Times.

KOSSUTH'S ADVICE.—The following is the declaration addressed by Kossuth to the Hungarians:

Turin, June 6, 1866.—A great number of my fellow countrymen, from different parts of Italy, having asked me what they ought to do under the present circumstances, and it being impossible for me to reply personally to all, I declare, by these presents, that in my opinion all those of my fellow countrymen employed in military service, or any other duty, would do well to remain where they are and await patiently the course of events. Those, on the contrary, who have no occupation, who are fit for military service and have a wish to enter it, will do well to enlist in the Hungarian legion. They may, besides, be all convinced that if affairs become developed so as to offer a field of action to their patriotic zeal, due notice shall be given to them.

L. KOSSUTH.

THE FREEDMEN'S BUREAU.

Generals Steedman's and Fullerton's Investigations of its Management in Mississippi.

From the New York Herald.

JACKSON, MISS., June 26, 1866.

Generals Steedman's and Fullerton's investigations in Mississippi disclose abundant evidence of dishonesty in the management on the part of Bureau agents, most of whom, however, have been recently removed.

Under Colonel Thomas's administration great irregularities prevailed at Columbus. According to the statements of citizens fees were taken for the approval of contracts and for procuring labor. Bribes were received, and the two first agents appointed returned enriched. At Grenada Chaplain Livermore, a reverend Bureau agent there, displayed remarkable speculative propensities. He charged fees ranging from a quarter of a dollar upwards for every conceivable thing—fees for marrying freemen and fees for permits to marry. No fish was too small that came into his net. One darkey owed him a dollar and a half, and had only a dollar to meet the claim. Livermore took his wallet and jack knife for the balance. He sold pork, potatoes, and captured mules to citizens. He made arrests, and convicted or acquitted according to the pecuniary argument employed. When his real practicies were exposed he offered fifty dollars to any one who would use sufficient influence to keep him in his position. This man declares his intention of returning to Illinois with ten thousand dollars in his pocket. He was removed in February last by Colonel Thomas, and placed under arrest for a short time, but nothing further was done with him. Like General Saxton, he took his record with him.

The Bureau duties in this State are now discharged most satisfactorily exclusively by the military officers of the department.

On Thursday or Friday last a woman named Kearney, residing on Buffalo street, came near putting an end to the existence of her child, a boy eleven years of age, by administering to him three "Pharaoh serpent eggs," for worms, with which the child was afflicted. Mrs Kearney, it appears, on the day mentioned, was engaged in cleaning house for a lady residing in Centre Park. In rummaging the house she discovered a box of the eggs, and reading "serpents" on the cover, she at once concluded that they were pills—medicine for worms—and she pocketed three of them. These she gave to the child, who soon commenced vomiting, throwing up blood, and was very sick. The alarmed mother ran to the house where she had been working, and asked if there was poison in those "pills." She was told they contained deadly poison, and without another word she ran for Dr. Shipman, who repaired to her house, and by promptly administering antidotes, it is believed has saved the child's life. It was very low last evening—It will be a great wonder if the child lives. Mrs. Kearney says she intended to tell the lady for whom she worked that she had taken three pills from a box in her bureau, but did not do so.—Rochester Union and Advertiser, 25th.

Had all American newspapers been guided by that faultless taste and matchless sense which ever characterized the Intelligencer, when directed by GALES and SEATON, this wasted country would have been spared all wars which selfish ambitious politicians, during the past five years, heaped upon it.

There was no necessity for the announcement of the death of two veteran editors and puolishers, whose wisdom and conservatism, in former years, made the National Intelligencer the peerless American newspaper. The tourist, in foreign lands, always pointed to the Intelligencer as the model newspaper, illustrative of the taste, character and thoughtful wisdom of his countrymen.—Memphis Bulletin.

NEW YORK, July 2.

The Bremen has arrived with dates to the 20th.

Prussia and Italy had formally declared war against Austria.

On the 19th., the Prussians entered Dresden,—the King of Saxony withdrawing into Bohemia. His army had effected a junction with the Austrians.

The Prussians occupy Hanover and threaten Frankfort. An engagement took place between the Prussians and Hessians near Frankfort, and a regiment of the latter were almost annihilated.

The Austrians are hourly expected in Saxony.

A battle is expected near Frankfort, before which there are assembled from 30,000 to 50,000 Federal troops.

The Austrians commenced hostilities on the 18th., by crossing the Silesian frontier and firing on the Prussians. The latter have not crossed the Austrian frontier, but are said to be pushing on Bohemia.

The writer says that the latter will take Tampico from the Imperialists,—its capture being entirely feasible, as it is guarded by Mexicans impressed into the service, and they will not fight against their own people.

Have we a National Disease?

S. D. Wallace, Esq. President of the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad, (Aug. 30, 1862,) says: "It has been said that Dyspepsia is our national disease. However this may be, it caused me, long and severe suffering. Providentially a friend furnished me with a few boxes of the HEPATIC PILLS, and the use of them has perfected a cure. In my family they have been used frequently with eminent success. Among my acquaintances, many cases originating from diseased liver, have been relieved and cured by them. I regard them as an invaluable medicine, and take pleasure in forwarding this voluntary tribute."

A NEW AND GRAND EPOCH IN MEDICINE!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggiel's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box fail taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disenfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is here announced that Maggiel's Bilious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhea Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 43 Fulton Street, New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box. Sold by all Druggists in Raleigh.

COTTON GINS,

MANUFACTURED BY

W. G. CLEMONS, BROWN & CO.,

COLUMBUS, GA.

WE have received the manufacture of Cotton Gins in this city, and will be prepared to fill orders by 1st June next. As we shall not be, as heretofore, represented by traveling agents, parties wishing our Gins, will confer a favor by sending in their orders at an early day. As owing to the demand, we shall be unable to keep a stock in the hands of our local agents, as it was our practice before the war. All business transactions being now reduced to cash, our sales will be made on the basis of ready pay.

Our Gins are too well known to require any special notice or commendation; we believe they are unrivalled in the chief points of excellence which go to make up a superior machine, namely: Speed light draught and good sample.

Our DOUBLE CYLINDER GINS will be found superior to the single cylinder, when parties have steam or good water power, to give them the necessary speed. In all cases when this can be done, we recommend them in preference to the single cylinder. If, however, indifferent or insufficient power is used, they will not do as well as the single Gin.

Messrs. DEROSSET & CO., Wilmington, N. C., are our general agents for the State of North Carolina.
